On a website, some people suggested that smoking bans throughout China because cigarettes are too harmful to the body.

But some people have different opinions.

“

The country also knows that smoking is bad for your health. But the tax is much

This is also a paradox. Smoking causes various physical complications and increases national medical expenditures.

I feel that premature death due to smoking saves more health insurance for the country

“

“

And not smoking is one of my rare advantages. If you do n't smoke, I have one less advantage.

You don't know how much tax a day for tobacco. Yes, it's a day

“

I know it 's not good, too much to make.

From a sentence: I also know that this is not good, but her chest is too big.
